Middle East-Related Sessions at NCSS - 2014

Friday, Nov. 21:

- 9:00-9:55 am: “Citizenship and Identity: Lessons from World War I in Turkey.” (High School.) Rm. 308.

- 9:00-9:55 am: “Teaching the Ottomans: Reframing Inquiry in the World History Classroom.” (High School.) Boylston Hallway, 3rd Level.

- 10:05-11:00 am: “Facing Fear: Challenging Arab Caricature in the U.S.” (Middle School.) Boylston Hallway, 3rd Level.

- 1:00-1:55 pm: “The Shark Tank: ‘Business’ Proposals by World Savvy Students.” (High School.) Rm. 308.

- 1:00-1:55 pm: “Fertile Crescent Archaeology: New Ideas about the Ancient World.” (Middle School.) Rm. 101.

- 1:00-3:00 pm: “Morocco: Global Classrooms and Cultural Connections for the 21st Century.” (Middle School.) Boylston Hallway, 3rd Level.

- 2:05-3:00 pm: “Turkey in the 21st Century.” (High School.) Rm. 306.

Saturday, Nov. 22:

- 10:10-11:05 am: “Forgotten Female Faces: Muslim Images in Current World History Textbooks.” (High School.) Rm. 302.

- 10:10-11:05 am: “Beyond Europe: Cold War in Guatemala, Iran, and Southeast Asia.” (High School.) Boylston Hallway, 3rd Level.

- 11:15 am-12:10 pm: “In the Heat of Battle: Students Solve Middle East Conflict.” (High School.) Rm. 304.

Interested in Teaching about the Middle East?
Attend the Middle East Community meeting/dinner!

Why? fun, networking, information

When? 7:00 pm on Saturday, Nov. 22.

Where? Garlic n/ Lemons Restaurant. 113 Harvard Ave., Allston.

Cost? It’s up to you. You buy your own dinner. (Prices are reasonable.)

How do I get there? If you want to work out a carpool arrangement, call Anastasia Hercules: 812-454-5695