

Iran: What is the perspective here?

The rapid growth of industrialization programs within Iran, along with a large amount of private wealth, became very resented by the majority of the population. This led to the Islamic Revolution. The protests and riots became greater. Most were religiously based and against the Shah's policies. Khomeini called for the overthrow of the Shah. The Shah fled from Iran on Jan. 16, 1979. Khomeini came back to Iran and led religious revolutionaries until the Shah was finally overthrown on Feb. 11, 1979.

Palestine: What is the perspective here?

After the collapse of the Roman Empire, and the decline of the -Byzantine, the Arabs finally took back the land of Palestine and brought the word of Mohammed to our people. This was a time of greatness for our people, not only did this Arab Empire bring us the true word of god, But they allowed the Jews and Christians to live in their lands in peace.

This was the great age of Palestine, With the word of god with us and the largest Arab nation since its downfall, the times were good. The economy was booming, being one of the largest trade areas in the world. We expanded our lands and spread our faith from India, across north Africa to Spain. But all good things must come to an end, near the turn of the century, a group of Turks called the Seljuk fought us and were eventually able to take Jerusalem. Their reign was over in less than thirty years when the First Christian crusaders marched to Jerusalem and killed every thing in their path (Including the Seljuk). The Christian Forces held Jerusalem for nearly a century. The Christian westerners have changed very little since then. Thankfully God was with us and Saladin Muslim leader took our land back in 1187.

Example of the end of a Paper #1

The fight for Palestine should be the most important thing in the mind of every Arab and every Muslim. This land is the staple of Muslim and Arab culture. It is vital that we retain control. This invasion of our land is not tolerable. Neither is the reaction of the rest of the world. The Jews receive support from America and the rest of the west, despite the fact that they stole this land from us. The reaction of my Arab brethren is most disturbing, our petty differences are stopping us from any coordination. We are Arabs! We have much more in common than differences. Our petty squabbling is keeping us from becoming a world power. Our reliance on outsiders, instead of ourselves is making us lackeys of the outside. Egypt and Saudi Arabia have already been Americanized! We must join together and deal with our problems, supporting each other instead of selling each other out. Our faith will carry us through.

In the Name of god, the merciful, the Compassionate Praise belongs to God, the Lord of all Being,
the All-merciful, the All-compassionate,
the master of the Day of Doom

Thee only we serve; to thee alone we pray for succour.

Guide us in the straight path,
the path of those whom Thou hast blessed,
not of those against whom Thou art wrathful,
nor of those who are astray.

What country is represented?

What character is represented?

What is your evidence?

Give examples of how the writer used language to communicate their perspective.