

Evidence Card for Investigator #5 – Mutrah Souq

Muscat has many wonderful traditional shopping malls, called “souqs,” but none is more spectacular than the Mutrah Souq. Two hundred years old, it consists of narrow winding alleys full of shops. There you can buy imported trinkets from throughout the Indian Ocean world, fine jewelry, clothing – from traditional headscarves to modern soccer jerseys, spices, perfumes, and many other products. When you feel too crowded or overwhelmed, you can pop outside and walk along the seafront before plunging once again into shopping!
