The Silk Road
The Door in the Wall
New Uses for Old Buildings

• Many caravan sarays and large private homes have been converted to other uses, including hotels, office and retail spaces, and restaurants
Where the other half lives

Just like any city, Middle Eastern cities have affluent neighborhoods and poor ones.

Many affluent neighborhood contain well-maintained buildings and older ones are filled with crumbling ones.
The Heart of the European Quarter: İstiklal Caddesi
New Neighbors