

Center for Middle Eastern Studies

Children's Life in Armenia: Overview

Author: Lisa Adeli adeli@email.arizona.edu

Subject Areas: Social Studies, Language Arts

Grade level: 3 (may be adapted to other grades)

Overview of the lesson: Students will learn about children's lives in Vanadzor, Armenia, and will compare/contrast life in Armenia with life in the U.S. Students will conclude by writing a friendly letter to a child in Armenia.

Time: 1-2 class periods

Required materials: computer with PowerPoint and a projector; presentation and presentation notes (from this lesson).

Standards:

Geography, Concept 2: Places and Regions

Writing, Strand 3, Concept 3: Friendly Letter