(Mostly) Middle East-Themed Resources for Use in AP World History

Period 1 (Technological and Environmental Transformations, to c. 600 BCE)

Key Concept 1.3. The Development and Interactions of Early Agricultural, Pastoral, and Urban Societies

- I. Core and Fundamental Civilizations (required: Mesopotamia)
  --Resources: “Ancient Mesopotamia: This History, Our History.”
  http://mesopotamia.lib.uchicago.edu

Period 2 (Organization and Reorganization of Human Societies, c. 600 BCE to c. 600 CE)

Key Concept 2.2: The Development of States and Empires

- I. Persian Empires:
  --Information on Zoroastrian religion (not because Zoroastrians are a large group today, but because it has influenced other religious ideologies in the region – e.g. early Christian heresies): http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion/religions/zoroastrian/
  --Documents: Fordham University’s Internet Ancient History Sourcebook: Persia.
  http://www.fordham.edu/halsall/ancient/asbook05.asp

  --Links to different websites on Persian history/culture: http://www.persia.org/History/

- II. Imperial Administration (example: Persia):
  --Document (primary source): Herodotus’ description of the Persians’ debate about their form of government and decision on monarchy.
  http://www.fordham.edu/Halsall/ancient/herodotus-persdemo.asp

  --Document (primary source): Photo of the “Cyrus Cylinder,” a declaration of Persian imperial policies that included allowing the Jews to return home after the ‘Babylonian Captivity.” For a picture and description of the cylinder’s significance, go to:
http://www.britishmuseum.org/explore/highlights/highlight_objects/me/c/cyrus_cylinder.aspx. See the brief documents from Cyrus and from the Bible describing the specific decrees concerning the Jews: http://www.fordham.edu/Halsall/ancient/539cyrus1.asp

-IIIa. Cities (example: Constantinople or Persepolis):

--Book/DVD: Persepolis Recreated by Farzin Rezaeian – a stunning book/DVD showing Persepolis as it was – and as it is now. (You can borrow it – at least the DVD – by emailing me. I can mail it to you.)

Key Concept 2.3: Emergence of Transregional Networks of Communication and Exchange

- Ia. Eurasian Silk Roads:
--Lesson Plan: “My Silk Road Journey” by Sharlyn Scott. This lesson includes plenty of websites that you can use to get students doing a brief research project about various parts of the Silk Road – or you can use them for your own preparation. http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons/ Then click on “M” and scroll down to the title.

--Online exhibit: “Luxury Arts of the Silk Road Empires” from the Smithsonian Freer/Sackler Gallery. http://www.asia.si.edu/exhibitions/online/luxuryarts/default.htm

- Ib. Trans-Saharan Caravan Routes:

--Article: “Trans-Saharan Trade and the West African Discovery of the Mediterranean World” by Pekka Masonen. http://www.smi.uib.no/paj/Masonen.html

--Video: Mosque of Djenne in Mali (Video Segment from “Paradise Found”, a BBC documentary on Islamic Architecture. Stresses the fusion of a world religion (Islam) with local traditions in West Africa. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7ETSH_s5Nfk&feature=related

- Ic. Indian Ocean Sea Lanes:
  --website/lesson plans: “The Indian Ocean in World Trade” - website by the Sultan Qaboos Cultural Center that has maps, lesson plans, and interactive materials that teachers can use: http://www.indianoceanhistory.org/

--online exhibit: “Caravan Kingdoms: Yemen and the Ancient Incense Trade” from the Smithsonian Freer/Sackler Gallery. http://www.asia.si.edu/exhibitions/online/yemen/launch.htm

--Online resources - Indian Ocean in History - Numerous Web Resources http://www.mec.utah.edu/outreach/?pageId=3319

- IIIa. Changes in Farming and Irrigation Techniques (example: qanat system):

-IIIb. Effects of the Spread of Disease (example: Byzantine Empire):

  -- Article: A section of this article contains an excellent description of ‘Justinian’s plague’: extant eyewitness accounts, the timeline of its spread along military and trade routes, the symptoms, the effects on Byzantine society and government. “Plague in the Ancient World: A Study from Thucydides to Justinian” by Christine A. Smith. http://www.loyno.edu/~history/journal/1996-7/Smith.html

Period 3(Regional and Transregional Interactions, c. 600 CE – c. 1450)

Key Concept 3.1: Expansion and Intensification of Communication and Exchange Networks:

- Ia. Development of New Trading Cities along Existing Trade Routes (example: Baghdad):

Student Exercises: The Baghdad That Was - Using Primary Sources to Teach World History.
http://findarticles.com/p/articles/mi_hb6541/is_1_73/ai_n31464206/?tag=content;coll1

http://depts.washington.edu/silkroad/cities/iran/isfahan/isfahan.html

Online resource: Samarkand.
http://depts.washington.edu/silkroad/cities/uz/samarkand/samarkand.html

- Ic1. Trade in Luxury Goods (examples: slaves, spices):

Lesson: “Slavery in Ottoman Egypt” (a lesson using primary source documents – University of Texas/Austin’s Hemispheres Project):
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/orgs/hemispheres/curriculum/slavery.php

Article: “Arab Spice Trade and the Spread of Islam.”
http://www1.american.edu/ted/spice.htm

Article: “Slave Traders and Karimi Merchants during the Mamluk Period - A Comparative Study”. Academic article that discusses spice and slave merchants in Egypt and Syria during the Mamluk Empire (1260-1517).
http://mamluk.uchicago.edu/MSR_X-1_2006-Sato-Tsugitaka_2.pdf

http://www.muslimheritage.com/topics/default.cfm?TaxonomyTypeID=109&TaxonomySubTypeID=148&TaxonomyThirdLevelID=-1&ArticleID=1029

Article: “The Coffee Route from Yemen to London - 10th-17th Centuries”. Muslim Heritage.
http://www.muslimheritage.com/topics/default.cfm?TaxonomyTypeID=108&TaxonomySubTypeID=126&TaxonomyThirdLevelID=277&ArticleID=1286

- Ic2: Caravan Organization (example: caravanserais):

Article: Spine of the Silk Roads (Saudi Aramco World)
http://www.saudiaramcoworld.com/issue/201104/spine.of.the.silk.roads.htm

http://archnet.org/library/sites/one-site.jsp?site_id=7718

Article: “Contracting Caravans: Partnership and Profit in Nineteenth and early Twentieth-Century trans-Saharan Trade” by Ghislaine Lyon of UCLA. Long and academic article that gives a good overview of how merchants made trading arrangements. Focuses on trans-Saharan trade but can be extrapolated to Islamic commercial practices in general.
http://www.sscnet.ucla.edu/history/lydon/Contracting%20caravans.pdf

--Monument profile: The Wikala (Caravanserais) of al-Ghuri.
http://www.discoverislamicart.org/database_item.php?id=monument;ISL;eg;Mon01;17;en

- Ie. Expansion of Empires (Ottoman):
--Lessons: See the many lesson plans on the Ottoman Empire (look in the subject index under Ottoman Empire/Turkey):
http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons

- IIc. Diffusion of Languages due to Migrations and Commercial Contacts (examples: Turkic, Arabic):

--Article: “The Turkic Languages in a Nutshell” – this is a very detailed linguistic description of Turkic languages throughout history (including areas and dialects that are no longer Turkic – example: Bulgaric). It’s probably too much information, but the breakdown of Turkic peoples, the representation of the scope of the language’s impact, and the photos of people, costumes, and architecture are a great resource.
http://turkic-languages.scienceontheweb.net/

--Website: Calligraphy Qalam - An Introduction to Arabic, Ottoman and Persian Calligraphy.
http://calligraphyqalam.com/index.html

- IIIa. Development and Spread of Islam:
--YouTube Video: “A Land Called Paradise” – a good introduction to the diversity of Muslims and a stereotype-buster to use at the beginning of your discussion – and again at the end. It will get the students talking.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sbcmPe0z3Sc

--Lesson Plan: “Use of Symbols in Egyptian Religion: Ancient, Coptic Christianity, and Islam” by Sharlyn Scott – this will help kids visualize (literally) Islam through its symbols and will also lead to a comparative analysis and discussion of the transformation of various religious beliefs.
http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons  Click on ‘U’ and scroll down to the title.

http://cmes.arizona.edu/node/771  and click on the title

--PowerPoint and notes: “Islam: Myths and Realities.”
http://cmes.arizona.edu/node/771  and click on the title.
Lesson Plans from the Islam Project.

PowerPoint and notes: “Quran” by Max McCulley.
http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons Click on ‘Q’.

Video: Islam - Empire of Faith. Multi-part PBS documentary that covers the religion, history and art of Islam from the beginning of Islam to the height of the Ottoman Empire.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vX3UHNhQ1Zk Part 1/3

Online resource: The University of Georgia’s Islam and Islamic Studies Resources Page. One of the best nodes on the internet.  http://islam.uga.edu/

http://www.ucalgary.ca/applied_history/tutor/islam/index2.html

Online resource: Internet Islamic History Sourcebook home page. Great collection of primary sources from Classical Islamic History.
http://www.fordham.edu/halsall/islam/islamsbook.asp#The%20Caliphate

IIIb. Diasporas (examples: Armenian, Jewish diasporic communities):

“Armenians in Iran, ca. 1500-1994” http://www.armenian-history.com/Diaspora/Armenians_in_Iran.htm

(and see the related, linked articles at the end)

Timeline: “The History of the Jewish People” – although it emphasizes restrictive measures/persecution of the Jews, this is interesting because it shows the widespread locations and situations of the Jewish diaspora. (You click on the century and get a variety of stories.) http://www.jewishhistory.org.il/history.php

IIIc. Interregional Travelers (example: Ibn Battuta):

--Medieval Travelers lesson plan: http://www.indianoceanhistory.org (In the drop down menu under ‘learning tools,’ click on ‘Teacher Guide and Lesson Plans.’ Then click on the ‘Interregional Travelers’ lesson in the menu on the left side of the page.)

--Online resource/education project: Mali to Mecca - Mansa Musa Makes the Hajj http://score.rims.k12.ca.us/activity/mali_to_mecca/

IIId. Diffusion of Artistic, Literary, and Cultural Traditions (examples: Islam in Sub-Saharan Africa, Middle Eastern influences on the Balkans, Islamic Spain):

--lesson plan: “Cross-Cultural Exchange on the Trans-Saharan Trade Routes” by Anna Martin. http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons Click on ‘C’ and scroll down to the title.

--powerpoint and notes: “Cultural Diffusion: The Impact of the Middle East on the Balkans” by Lisa Adeli. http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons Click on ‘C’ and scroll down to the title.

--lesson plan: “How History Shaped Literature and How Literature Changed History: Serbs and the Battle of Kosovo” by Lisa Adeli – shows the development of a Serbian literary tradition from stories of a medieval battle with the Ottomans and shows how nationalism transformed these stories into a call to action. http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons Click on ‘H’ and scroll down to the title.
Online Exhibit: The (Smithsonian) Freer/Sackler Gallery’s “Caliphs and Kings: Art and Influence of Islamic Spain.”  http://www.asia.si.edu/exhibitions/online/caliphs/intro.htm

Video: Paradise Found - a documentary on Islamic architecture and art.  http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pL4QpirJcYk

- IIIe. Diffusion of Scientific and Technological Traditions (examples: Greek and Indian influence on Muslim scholars, Muslim dissemination of knowledge in Spain):
  --YouTube Video (for students): “1001 Inventions and the Library of Secrets” – innovations in medieval Islam, a 13-minute video.  http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JZDe9DCx7Wk&feature=related

  --Lesson Plan: “Contributions of Islamic Civilization” by Saviz Safizadeh.  (Even if you don’t want to use the lesson, there are some really good primary sources included in it.):  http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons  Click on ‘C’ and scroll down to the title.

- IVb. Spread of Epidemic Diseases along the Trade Routes (example: Black Death):
  --Lesson Plan: “Contagion, Quarantines, and Cures” – includes primary sources, a readers’ theater-type script, and directions for a short research project:  http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons  Click on ‘C’ and scroll down to the title.  (currently under development – will be up soon)
Key Concept 3.2: Continuity and Innovation of State Forms and their Interactions

- Ia. Traditions and innovations in the reorganization of empires (example: religious traditions and organizational innovation in the multi-ethnic Ottoman Empire):

  --Lesson plans/powerpoints: “The Ottoman Empire News Broadcast” by Jennifer Turner, “Ottoman Empire Unit” by Stacy Hercules, “Ottoman Lesson Plan” by Karen Michels, “Ottoman Travel Brochure” by Jeff Mann, “Teach Ottoman Empire” by Abbey McNair. http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons Click on the first letter of the title and scroll down to the appropriate lesson. (See the subject index – Ottoman Empire/Turkey – for more.)

  --Powerpoints and notes about the Ottoman Empire: relevant sections in http://cmes.arizona.edu/node/771

- Ib. Decentralized states (example: Muslim Spain):

  --Materials and lesson plans: “Andalusia” (Muslim Spain). http://www.nyu.edu/gsas/program/neareast/andalusia/index.html

  --Video: An Islamic History of Europe. BBC documentary that examines Islamic Spain and Sicily and their impact on European history. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xO1aCK-7z5o

  --Website: Cities of Light - The Rise and Fall of Islamic Spain http://www.islamicspain.tv/Islamic-Spain/index.html

- Ic. Synthesizing local and borrowed traditions (example: Ottoman synthesis of Persian, Arab, and Byzantine traditions; Muslim Spain):

  -- See materials on Andalusia (Muslim Spain) in Ib above.

- II. Interregional contacts and conflicts leading to technological/cultural transfers (example: Crusades):

Key Concept 3.3: Increased Economic Productive Capacity and its Consequences

- Ib. Adoption of Crops in Areas outside their Indigenous Homeland (example: rice):
  --“Rice: From Gift of the Gods to San Francisco Treat” (a lesson using primary source documents, though they cross time periods – University of Texas/Austin’s Hemispheres Project): http://www.utexas.edu/cola/orgs/hemispheres/curriculum/eti.php

--Article: The Muslim Agricultural Revolution and its Influence on Europe

- IIIb. Women’s roles
  --Lesson Plan: “Florentine and Ottoman Women of the 14th – 16th Centuries: A Comparative Curriculum Unit” by Louise Forsyth. It uses very short primary source quotes from medieval Florence and the Ottoman Empire to lead students to discuss women’s roles in society. http://cmes.arizona.edu/outreach/lessons Click on ‘F’ and scroll down to the title.

Period 4(Global Interactions, c. 1450 CE – c. 1750)

Key Concept 4.1: Globalizing Networks of Communication and Exchange

- VIa. Local Adaptations of Islam (Intensification of Sunni-Shi’a Split and Spread of Sufism):
  --Article: (NPR) “The Origins of the Shia-Sunni Split.”
--Article: (NPR) “Sufism.”
http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion/religions/islam/subdivisions/sufism_1.shtml

--Video: Sufi Soul. Channel 4 documentary that focuses on various musical traditions within Sufism throughout the Islamic World. Highlights pluralism, multiculturalism and syncretism that abounds in the Islamic mystical tradition.
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ha0T5Vro6_w

- VIIa. Innovations in visual and performing arts (example: miniature paintings in the Middle East):
--Article: “A Brief History of the Persian Miniature” Iran Chamber Society:
http://www.iranchamber.com/art/articles/history_iranian_miniature.php

--YouTube video: 2 min., 14 sec. video “Persian Miniatures on Display in Tehran Exhibition.”
