

MEMORIES OF EXILE AND DISPLACEMENT IN THE WORK OF COLOMBIA'S TRUTH COMMISSION

with Carlos Martín Beristain, former commissioner, Colombia's Truth Commission and discussant, Jeannine Relly, University of Arizona School of Journalism

In 2022, Colombia's Truth Commission presented its final report on human rights violations during Latin America's longest-running armed conflict. Beristain served as a member of the Truth Commission and coordinated its work chronicling the experience of Colombian refugees and exiles, the largest documentation project of forced displacement ever conducted by a national truth commission.
