

What the Book Is About

Title of the Book:

Author:

List the main characters in the book. Write one sentence about each character, giving the most important facts about him/her.

The main conflict in the book (the problem the main character faces) is:

Write down one quote from the text that made you stop and think. Explain why/how it affected you.

One thing about life in Afghanistan that is different from my life is:

One thing that I have in common with the main character of the book is:

One thing I learned that surprised me was: